Frequency

Every 6 years.

Data custodian

Australian Bureau of Statistics.

Accountability attributes

Reporting requirements: COAG – annually
Review of Government services provision – annually.

Organisation responsible for providing data: Australian Bureau of Statistics.

Accountability: Shared (if shared, roles and responsibilities should be clearly delineated).

Further data development / collection required: More frequent reporting on this indicator at population level will require increased frequency of ABS SDAC or the development of new special purpose survey or data collection. There is no current plan.

Development of carer data in existing administrative collections, including the CSTDA NMDS (carer data items are an identified redevelopment priority).

Other issues caveats:

Available disaggregation depends on sampling errors and other caveats.

The age of the care recipient will be limited to 0 to 64 years.

SDAC 2003 is the latest available source for data about the labour force participation rate of carers. SDAC data are collected every six years.

It is assumed that Indigenous status is that of the carer, not care recipient. Indigenous status is not available from SDAC 2003 data, and due to small sample sizes may not be usable from SDAC 2009. It may be possible to produce data on labour force participation of self-identified Indigenous carers from the Census but this would be a different population to Indigenous carers that would be captured through the SDAC. The NATSISS did not collect carer information so it would not be possible to produce data for carers of Indigenous persons with disability people at this time.
