| Classification structure: | The ANZSOC is a classification with three levels: Divisions (the broadest level),Subdivisions (the intermediate level) and Groups (the finest level). At the divisionallevel, the main purpose is to provide a limited number of categories that provide abroad overall picture of offence types, that are suitable for the publication ofsummary tables in official statistics. The subdivision and group levels provideincreasingly detailed dissections of these categories for the compilation of morespecific and detailed statistics. |
|                           | The structure of the ANZSOC is illustrated below.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
